Sustainability

Along with Qeqertalik Business Council, we continuously work with sustainability, just as we actively integrate a number of the UN's World Goals into our activities. We see it as an important societal task that our activities can help ensure sustainable development in our region. It is something that we regularly talk about internally, just as we look at the possibilities for sustainable activities with our partners from the tourism and business community – and we act on it when we can see new potential in relation to fulfilling our role in society
